

Useful Websites

Scholastic

This website is designed for parents, teachers, and kids, providing a space where young writers can freely create stories that spark their imagination and enhance their skills. Children can write about adventure, science fiction, and more, exploring the topics that excite them in a fun, age-appropriate way. Recognized as one of the best writing websites for kids, it encourages budding authors to develop their unique voices while enjoying the process. Ideal for preparatory school children, you can explore it here:

<https://www.scholastic.co.uk/>

Fun English Games

Another excellent writing website for kids, this site helps children improve their writing skills through engaging and colourful games. With a simple, kid-friendly interface, it's easy to use and popular among young writers. Visit it here: <http://www.funenglishgames.com/writinggames.html>).

Boomwriter

Boomwriter is a popular writing website for kids, designed to enhance their writing skills, vocabulary, reading abilities, and peer assessment in a fun, engaging way. The site offers resources tailored for young writers, including story-building tools, collaborative projects, and games, making it highly appealing to kids. Additionally, Boomwriter provides valuable resources for books, educators, and creative activities. If you're looking for a platform where your child can write stories and collaborate on projects with classmates, Boomwriter is an excellent choice. Visit the website at <http://boomwriter.com>.

Story Jumper

StoryJumper is an engaging platform where children can create and share their own stories, guided by the beloved character Story Bird. With interactive tools and a kid-friendly design, it inspires creativity and makes storytelling fun. Visit the site here: <http://www.storyjumper.com/>.

Kids On the Net

Kids on the Net is a long-standing creative writing website that's perfect for nurturing your child's storytelling skills. With a variety of resources and links to other writing-focused sites, it offers a rich environment for kids to explore and develop their love of writing. Explore it here: <http://www.kidsonthenet.org.uk/create/links.htm>.

NetRover

This website offers engaging writing games that help children improve their writing skills while having fun. It's a great way for kids to enjoy learning and become better writers. Check it out here: http://www.netrover.com/~kingskid/writing/Kids_Writing.html.

Visuwords

Visuwords is an exciting, visually engaging site that kids will love! With vibrant graphics and interactive features, it turns vocabulary-building and writing into a fun adventure. Check out Visuwords here: <http://www.visuwords.com/>.

Upload this document

<https://www.readingrockets.org/sites/default/files/migrated/pdfs/edextras/22758-en.pdf>

Story writing at home

<https://firststory.org.uk/writeday/>